

Encore Performances Frequently Asked Questions

How long will the performance be?

NPB's encore performances of The Nutcracker will run approximately 1 hour and 50 minutes, only ten minutes shorter than the full production.

What's been changed in the encore performances if they are shorter?

For these performances, the battle scene will be condensed to a one-minute version. The dance of Mother Ginger and her children will be shortened. Children playing the roles of little mice and cotton candy will not perform in these two shows. A few large set pieces used for the Lorain County performances will not be present.

Do I have to buy a ticket?

Yes, tickets for this performance will be a flat $15. Seats are general admission, which means seats are not assigned or reserved, and are occupied on a first-come, first-served basis. Click here to purchase.

Do I need to purchase my ticket before I arrive at the theater?

It is preferred that you purchase your tickets online before arriving at the venue. However, you may also purchase tickets at the door. If you do this, plan to arrive early in case of a line at the ticket desk.

The Sunday performance is marked sensory-friendly. What does this mean?

For more information on NPB's sensory-friendly performances, visit northpointeballet.org/sensory-friendly